INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE SUMMARY SEPARATE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

To the Shareholder of Scotiabank Caribbean Holdings Ltd.

Opinion

The summary separate financial statements, which comprise the summary separate statement of financial position as at October 31, 2017, the summary separate statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, changes in shareholder's equity and cash flows for the year then ended, are derived from the audited separate financial statements of (Scotiabank Caribbean Holdings Ltd. ("the Company")) for the year ended October 31, 2017.

In our opinion, the accompanying summary separate financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited separate financial statements.

Summary Separate Financial Statements

The summary separate financial statements do not contain all the disclosures required by the International Financial Reporting Standards applied in the preparation of the audited separate financial statements of the Company. Reading the summary separate financial statements and our report thereon, therefore, is not a substitute for reading the audited separate financial statements and our report thereon.

The Audited Separate Financial Statements and Our Report Thereon

We expressed an unqualified audit opinion on the audited separate financial statements in our report dated January 16, 2018.

Management's Responsibility for the Summary Separate Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the summary separate financial statements.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on whether the summary separate financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited separate financial statements based on our procedures, which were conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) 810 (Revised), "Engagements to Report on Summary Financial Statements."

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE SUMMARY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

To the Managing Director of
The Bank of Nova Scotia - Barbados Branches

Opinion

The summary financial statements, which comprise the summary statement of financial position as at October 31, 2017, the summary statements of changes in Fixed Office Account, profit or loss and other comprehensive income and cash flows for the year then ended, are derived from the audited financial statements of The Bank of Nova Scotia - Barbados Branches ("the Bank") for the year ended October 31, 2017.

In our opinion, the accompanying summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements.

Summary Financial Statements

The summary financial statements do not contain all the disclosures required by the basis of accounting applied in the preparation of the audited financial statements of the Bank. Reading the summary financial statements and our report thereon, therefore, is not a substitute for reading the audited financial statements and our report thereon.

The Audited Financial Statements and Our Report Thereon

We expressed an unmodified audit opinion on the audited financial statements in our report dated January 4, 2018.

Emphasis of Matter - Restriction on Use and Distribution

Our auditor's report dated January 4, 2018 on the audited financial statements included an Emphasis of Matter paragraph, drawing attention to the fact that the financial statements are prepared to assist the Bank to comply with the Financial Institutions Act CAP 308A:section 45 of the Laws of Barbados. As a result, the financial statements may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report thereon is intended solely for the Bank and its Regulators and should not be used by or distributed to parties other than the Bank or its Regulators. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Management's Responsibility for the Summary Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the summary financial statements.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on whether the summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements based on our procedures, which were conducted in accordance with International Standard on Auditing (ISA) 810 (Revised), "Engagements to Report on Summary Financial Statements."

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE SUMMARY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

To the Managing Director of
The Bank of Nova Scotia Offshore Banking Unit

Opinion

The summary financial statements, which comprise the summary statement of financial position as at October 31, 2017, the summary statements of changes in Head Office Account, profit or loss and other comprehensive income and cash flows for the year then ended, are derived from the audited financial statements of The Bank of Nova Scotia Offshore Banking Unit ("the Bank") for the year ended October 31, 2017.

In our opinion, the accompanying summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements.

Summary Financial Statements

The summary financial statements do not contain all the disclosures required by the basis of accounting applied in the preparation of the audited financial statements of the Bank. Reading the summary financial statements and our report thereon, therefore, is not a substitute for reading the audited financial statements and our report thereon.

The Audited Financial Statements and Our Report Thereon

We expressed an unmodified audit opinion on the audited financial statements in our report dated January 4, 2018.

Emphasis of Matter – Clarification on Use and Distribution

Our earlier report dated January 4, 2018 on the audited financial statements included an Emphasis of Matter paragraph, drawing attention to the fact that the financial statements are prepared to assist the Bank in complying with the International Financial Services Act (CPL 325 section 43) of the Laws of Barbados. As a result, the financial statements may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report thereon is intended solely for the Bank and its Regulators and should not be used by or attributed to parties other than the Bank or its Regulators. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Management's Responsibility for the Summary Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the summary financial statements.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on whether the summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements based on our procedures, which were conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISA) 810 (Revised), "Engagements to Report on Summary Financial Statements."
