- (f) the police officer in charge of every police station with respect to all persons who, on census day, are in custody on the premises of such station.

Particulars to be furnished

4. The particulars to be furnished on the taking of the census are those set out in the Schedule to these Regulations.

Census forms

5. The information and particulars prescribed in regulations 3 and 4 shall be furnished on such forms as the Director may approve.

Division of Barbados into districts

6. The Director shall divide Barbados into enumeration districts and shall prepare a detailed description in writing of every enumeration district and its boundaries for the purpose of the census.

Appointment and assignment of senior supervisors, supervisors and enumerators to districts

7.(1) The Director may appoint such numbers of suitable persons as he considers necessary to be

- (a) senior supervisors to coordinate and supervise the work of an appropriate number of supervisors and enumerators;
- (b) supervisors to assist in the training and control of enumerators in the execution of their duties; and
- (c) enumerators to collect census information.

(2) A supervisor and an enumerator may be assigned to one or more enumeration district.

(3) Where it appears to the Director that a senior supervisor, a supervisor or an enumerator is unfit to perform his functions under these Regulations, the Director may terminate his appointment and may appoint some fit and proper person in his place to perform those functions.

(4) Notice of an appointment or the cancellation of an appointment of every senior supervisor, supervisor and enumerator shall be published in the Official Gazette and in one or more daily newspaper published in Barbados.

Functions of senior supervisor

8. The functions of a senior supervisor are as follows:

- (a) to give all necessary instruction to supervisors in his supervisory enumeration district;
- (b) to serve as a linkage between the census office, supervisors and enumerators;
- (c) to deliver kits, stationery and census forms or tablets to supervisors and to ensure their safe return;
- (d) to solve any problems which may arise from time to time in respect of the census;
- (e) to monitor the progress of field enumeration;
- (f) to prepare and submit reports on the progress of enumerators;
- (g) to attend training sessions relating to the supervision of supervisors and enumerators;
- (h) to ensure that supervisors are fully aware of the boundaries of their enumeration district; and
- (i) to carry out generally all instructions issued to him by the Director for the purpose of taking the census.

Functions of supervisor

9. The functions of a supervisor are as follows:

- (a) to take each enumerator around the boundaries of his enumeration district;

- (b) to give all necessary instructions to enumerators while in his enumeration district;
  - (c) to issue to enumerators all paper census forms or tablets which are to be used for the purpose of accessing electronic census forms and any other articles necessary for the taking of the census;
  - (d) to examine all entries made on census forms by enumerators and, where it appears upon examination that any census information in any form is defective or has been omitted, to require the enumerator responsible for filling out the form to take steps to correct the defective or omitted information;
  - (e) to arrange for the enumeration of all persons and housing in his assigned enumeration district;
  - (f) to receive, examine and transmit to the Director, within the time prescribed by the Director, all completed census forms, tablets and any other articles delivered to him by the enumerators under his control;
  - (g) to arrange for the carrying out of any checks in the field after the census as directed by the Director; and
  - (h) to carry out generally all instructions issued to him by the Director for the purpose of taking the census.

Functions of the enumerator

10. The functions of an enumerator are as follows:

- (a) to notify his assigned supervisor and the Director of every permanent change of his address within 2 days of that change;
- (b) to preserve carefully any written instructions, books, forms, documents or any other articles or items issued to him in connection with his assigned enumeration district and to return them to the Director on the conclusion of the enumeration or when called upon to do so;

- (c) to visit personally, within the periods specified by the Director, every building and household in his assigned enumeration district to obtain all information necessary for the filling out of the census forms and to fill out the census forms accurately and faithfully;
- (d) to make further visits to buildings and households, where on a first visit thereto the required information cannot be obtained and, on the direction of his supervisor, to revisit any building or household for the purpose of gathering relevant information in respect of omissions in any census form or correcting or verifying entries in any census form; and
- (e) to carry out generally such instructions of the Director or of the supervisor of his assigned enumeration district as may be issued for the purpose of taking the census.

Entry and inspection of premises

11. The Director and every senior supervisor, supervisor and enumerator appointed under these Regulations may, for any purpose connected with the taking of the census, enter and inspect any premises and make such inquiries as he considers necessary in the performance of his duties.
