- (b) the Gold Award of Achievement Act, Cap. 401;
- (c) the Award of Pride of Barbados Act, 2019 (Act 2019-52);
- (d) the Barbados Humanitarian Service Award Act, 2020 (Act 2020-33);
and
- (e) section 8 of this Act.

Chancellor

5.(1) The President shall be the Chancellor of the Order and shall be responsible for the administration of the following:

- (a) Order of the Republic;
- (b) Trident of Excellence;
- (c) Barbados Service Award;
- (d) Barbados Services Medal of Honour;
- (e) Barbados Bravery Decorations;
- (f) The Prime Minister's Award for Leadership.

(2) In the absence of the President, the person for the time being performing the functions of the office of the President shall discharge the functions of the Chancellor of the Order.

(3) The Chancellor,

- (a) shall appoint the Secretary to the Cabinet to be the Secretary of the Order; and
- (b) may appoint such other officials to assist in the administration of the Order as he considers necessary.

(4) A person is not a member of the Order by reason of the fact only that he is an official of the Order.

Duties of Secretary

6.(1) The Secretary of the Order shall

- (a) maintain the records of the Order;
- (b) maintain a register of all conferred honours and decorations;
- (c) maintain the records of the Advisory Council;

- (d) arrange investitures; and
 - (e) perform such other functions in respect of the Order as the Chancellor may from time to time direct.
- (2) The Secretary of the Order shall be the Secretary of the Advisory Council.

Advisory Council

7.(1) There shall be a National Honours and Decorations Advisory Council, to be known as the “Advisory Council” which shall consist of

- (a) a Chairman, who shall be a Minister nominated by the Prime Minister;
 - (b) the Head of the Public Service; and
 - (c) 3 other persons appointed by the Prime Minister, one of whom shall be appointed upon the advice of the Leader of the Opposition.
- (2) A member of the Advisory Council shall hold office for a period not exceeding 3 years from the date of appointment and is eligible for reappointment.
- (3) A vacancy in the membership of the Advisory Council shall not preclude the carrying out of its functions.
- (4) The Advisory Council shall
- (a) consider nominations of persons
 - (i) for appointment to the Order of the Republic;
 - (ii) to receive the Trident of Excellence;
 - (iii) to receive the Barbados Service Award;
 - (iv) to receive the Barbados Services Medal of Honour;
 - (v) to receive the Barbados Bravery Decorations;
 - (vi) to receive the Prime Minister’s Award for Leadership;
 - (b) make recommendations to the Prime Minister in relation to those nominations; and

- (c) advise the President on matters concerning the Order as the President may refer for consideration.

Seal for specified honours and decorations

8.(1) The Order shall have an official Seal in respect of the following honours and decorations:

- (a) Order of the Republic;
 - (b) Trident of Excellence;
 - (c) Barbados Service Award;

 - (f) Prime Minister's Award for Leadership is set out in the Sixth Schedule.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a person may be conferred a Barbados Bravery Decoration where the person, not being a citizen of Barbados, has performed an act
- (a) in Barbados for which the decoration may be conferred under this Act; or
 - (b) outside of Barbados for which the decoration may be conferred under this Act, being an act that merits recognition as an act in the interest of Barbados.

Nominations for appointment

10. Any person may submit to the Secretary for consideration of the Advisory Council a nomination of

- (a) a citizen of Barbados for appointment to the Order; or
- (b) a person other than a citizen of Barbados for appointment as an honorary member to the Order.

Time of appointment

11.(1) An appointment to the Order shall be made

- (a) once a year, on the 30th day of November; or
 - (b) on such other date as is prescribed by the Chancellor by order.
- (2) An honorary appointment to the Order may be made at any time in a year.

Publication

12. The names of those persons on whom an honour or decoration is conferred in accordance with this Act shall be published in the Official Gazette.

Cancellation of honours and decorations in form of medals

13.(1) Where a person on whom an honour or decoration, in the form of a medal or clasp, has been conferred

- (a) brings Barbados into disrepute; or
- (b) engages in dishonourable conduct,

the Chancellor may cancel that honour or decoration.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), where a medal or clasp is cancelled,

- (a) the name of the person on whom the medal or clasp was conferred shall be erased from the relevant register; and
- (b) the person shall, where applicable, return the medal or any clasp to the Secretary.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Chancellor may restore the cancelled honour or decoration.

(4) Where the medal or clasp is restored, the Secretary shall re-enter the record of the medal or clasp into the relevant register.

Termination of membership

14.(1) A person does not cease to be a member or an honorary member of the Order by reason only of that person ceasing to be eligible to be appointed to the Order.

(2) A person ceases to be a member or an honorary member of the Order on

- (a) the death of that person;

- (b) resignation from the Order; or
 - (c) termination of the appointment of that person.
- (3) An appointment that has been terminated may be restored.
- (4) Where a person ceases, other than by death, to be a member or an honorary member of the Order, the person shall immediately return the insignia to the Secretary.

Resignation from the Order

- 15.(1) A person who wishes to resign from the Order shall submit a resignation in writing to the Chancellor.
- (2) A person who is an honorary member of the Order and who no longer desires to be recognised as an honorary member shall notify the Chancellor in writing of his desire.
- (3) A resignation or notice submitted in accordance with this section shall take effect from the day on which the person is informed of the acceptance of the resignation or notice, as the case may be.
