Independent Auditors' Report on the Summary Financial StatementsTo the Country Head of The Bank of Nova Scotia Offshore Banking Unit*Opinion

The summary financial statements, which comprise the summary statement of financial position as at October 31, 2022, the summary statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended, are derived from the audited financial statements of The Bank of Nova Scotia Offshore Banking Unit ("the Bank") for the year ended October 31, 2022.

In our opinion, the accompanying summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements.

Summary Financial Statements

The summary financial statements do not contain all the disclosures required by the basis of accounting applied in the preparation of the audited financial statements of the Bank. Reading the summary financial statements and our report thereon, therefore, is not a substitute for reading the audited financial statements and our report thereon.

The Audited Financial Statements and Our Report Thereon

We expressed an unmodified audit opinion on the audited financial statements in our report dated February 17, 2023. That report also includes an Emphasis of Matter paragraph, drawing attention to the fact that the audited financial statements are prepared to assist the Bank to comply with the Financial Institutions (Amendment) Act, 2018-51 of the Laws of Barbados. As a result, the audited financial statements may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report thereon is intended solely for the Bank and its Regulators and should not be used by or distributed to parties other than the Bank or its Regulators. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Management's Responsibility for the Summary Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the summary financial statements.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on whether the summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements based on our procedures, which were conducted in accordance with International Standard on Auditing (ISA) 810 (Revised), "Engagements to Report on Summary Financial Statements".

Independent Auditors' Report on the Summary Financial StatementsTo the Shareholder of Scotiabank (Barbados) Limited*Opinion

The summary financial statements, which comprise the summary statement of financial position as at October 31, 2022, the summary statements of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended, are derived from the audited financial statements of Scotiabank (Barbados) Limited ("the Bank") for the year ended October 31, 2022.

In our opinion, the accompanying summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements.

Summary Financial Statements

The summary financial statements do not contain all the disclosures required by International Financial Reporting Standards. Reading the summary financial statements and our report thereon, therefore, is not a substitute for reading the audited financial statements and our report thereon.

The Audited Financial Statements and Our Report Thereon

We expressed an unmodified audit opinion on the audited financial statements in our report dated February 22, 2023.

Management's Responsibility for the Summary Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the summary financial statements.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on whether the summary financial statements are consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements based on our procedures, which were conducted in accordance with International Standard on Auditing (ISA) 810 (Revised), "Engagements to Report on Summary Financial Statements".
