FORMATION AGREEMENT FOR THE STRATEGIC DIALOGUE AND COOPERATION PLATFORM BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF BARBADOS
AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SURINAME

The Government of Barbados of the One Part and the Government of the Republic of Suriname of the Other Part (hereinafter referred to as “the Parties”).

WHEREAS the Parties are:

DETERMINED to strengthen cooperation and the existing friendly relations between the two countries with a view to the development of the potential of both their countries and peoples;

WISHING to develop such cooperation on the basis of mutual respect for sovereignty, non-interference in each other’s internal affairs, equality and mutual benefit;

DESIRING to establish a Strategic Dialogue and Cooperation Platform (SDCP) as an effective and necessary political framework and basis for strategic cooperation in areas of mutual interest at the highest political level.

The Parties have agreed as follows:

Article I

The purpose of this Agreement is to strengthen and promote meaningful cooperation in areas of mutual benefit, in accordance with the respective national legislations and regulations of the Parties, and to ensure that such strategic cooperation is carried out through an effective mechanism.

Article II

1. The SDCP shall be chaired by the respective Heads of Government of the Parties, who shall be supported by other Ministers or Agencies, depending on the area of interest or sectorial responsibility.

2. The SDCP meeting agenda and logistics will be prepared under the responsibility of the respective Foreign Ministers of Barbados and the Republic of Suriname.
3. The Parties shall furthermore establish thematic working groups at the technical level, who will periodically report to the respective Ministers of Foreign Affairs.
4. The Foreign Ministers will report every six months to the respective Heads of Government of Barbados and the Republic of Suriname.

Article III

1. Under this Agreement the two Parties may sign complementary or supplementary agreements in any area of mutual interest.
2. Such complementary or supplementary agreements shall specify cooperation programs and projects their goals, objectives, financial and technical resources and working schedules, and specify areas and the manner in which they shall be executed.
3. In addition, agencies and organizations of the Parties may, under the aegis of the SDCP, conclude documents for sectorial cooperation that they consider necessary to strengthen bilateral cooperation.
4. Private sectors, organizations in both countries will be designated as partners in this process of increased strategic engagement and invited to relevant meetings at presidential, ministerial and working group level.

Article IV

Cooperation under this Agreement shall include areas of common interest, including, but not limited to:

- i. Political Consultations and Collaboration;
- ii. Economic Cooperation and Investment;
- iii. Tourism;
- iv. Transportation – Air and Sea Transport Services;
- v. Agriculture, Animal Husbandry & Fisheries;
- vi. Natural resources, Environment and Energy;

- vii. Education and Training, including Capacity Building;
- viii. Arts and Culture, Youth and Sport;
- ix. Regional Institutions;
- x. Safety and Security.

Article V

All cooperative activities undertaken pursuant to this Agreement shall be conducted in accordance with the applicable laws, regulations and procedures in each country and shall be subject to the availability of funds and personnel. Each Party shall bear the costs of its own participation, unless other arrangements are made with the mutual consent of the Parties.

Article VI

The SDCP shall meet at least twice a year and as agreed by the Parties, alternately in each country and if need be in other mutually agreed locations.

Article VII

This Agreement, as well as the measures taken under it, shall be without prejudice to either Party's obligations arising from treaties to which either is a party or both are parties.

Article VIII

Any differences concerning the interpretation or implementation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be resolved by direct consultations and negotiations between the Parties through diplomatic channels.

Article IX

Any amendment to this Agreement shall be made by mutual consent between both Parties through diplomatic channels. These amendments shall be made in accordance with the internal legal procedures of each of the Parties.

Article X

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the last exchange of diplomatic notes in which the Parties notify each other of the completion of their internal procedures necessary for the entry into force of this Agreement.
2. This Agreement shall be effective for a period of five years (5) and automatically renewed for successive equal periods, unless one of the Parties notifies the other Party in written form, through diplomatic channels, of its intention not to renew the Agreement at least three months (3) prior to the date of successive automatic expiration of this Agreement.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of the immediate paragraph above, any of the Parties may also inform the other of its intention to terminate this Agreement at any time and the termination shall take effect three months (3) after the date of notification to the other Party. Unless, otherwise agreed upon between the Parties, the termination shall not affect the programs and projects under implementation within the framework of the present Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned being duly authorized by their respective Governments have signed the present Agreement.
